

WWI LIVING HISTORY WEEKEND

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

National WWI Memorial, 14th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC

Event Description: Join us at the National World War I Memorial in Washington, DC, for a weekend of immersive events hosted by The Doughboy Foundation, celebrating the newly installed sculpture "A Soldier's Journey," the final component of the memorial.

Saturday, September 14

9:00AM- 5:00PM: Displays by WWI Re-enactors, Hello Girls, National Mobile WWI Museum, WWI Vehicles

10:00AM: Concert by Tom Callinan, Connecticut's 1st State Troubadour

10:30AM: WWI Historical Presentation

11:00AM: Concert by the AEF Headquarters Band Brass Quintet

12:00PM: WWI Historical Presentation

12:30PM: Concert by Tom Callinan, Connecticut's 1st State Troubadour

1:00PM: "General John Blackjack Pershing" Presentation by Chas Rittenhouse

1:30PM: Presentation by The Menin Gate Buglers

2:00PM: One Man Play "An American Soldier's Journey Home" by Douglas Taurel

3:00PM: Presentation by Edmund D. Potter, PhD, The Citizen Soldiers Education Foundation

3:25PM: American Gold Star Mothers Wreath Ceremony

3:30PM: Concert by the AEF Headquarters Band

4:45PM: Wreath Ceremony

5:00PM: The Last Post and Daily Taps

Sunday, September 15

9:00AM- 5:00PM: Displays by WWI Re-enactors, Hello Girls, National Mobile WWI Museum,
WWI Vehicles

10:00AM: WWI Historical Presentation

11:30AM: "General John Blackjack Pershing" Presentation by Chas Rittenhouse

12:00PM: Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps

12:15PM: Concert by the Community Bands of Westmoreland County

1:30PM: Presentation by The Menin Gate Buglers

2:00PM: One Man Play "An American Soldier's Journey Home" by Douglas Taurel

3:00PM: WWI Historical Presentation

4:00PM: Concert by the AEF Headquarters Band Brass Quintet

4:45PM: Wreath Laying

5:00PM: The Last Post, Rouse and Daily Taps